How do we collect your data?

Website

This Privacy Policy applies only to your use of www.domobaal.com. This site sometimes contain links to other websites, on which we have no control over how your data is collected, stored, or used and therefore we advise you to check their privacy policies before providing any data to them.

Mailing Lists

If you sign up to our mailing lists we collect your name and email address. With your permission and where permitted by law, we use this data for marketing purposes, which includes contacting you by email with information and news about upcoming exhibitions, events and announcements. We use MailChimp as an email marketing service and do not store your details online whether on our own servers or any other shared server other than those used by MailChimp.

DOMOBAAL

You will not be sent any unlawful or other marketing or spam or any other information whatsoever and you will always have the opportunity to opt-out. We always work within our obligations under GDPR legislation.

Who can access my data?

We never pass on, sell or swap your data for marketing purposes to third parties. The only exception to this is data that is forwarded to third parties that is needed to provide you with related services, for example when art transport, framing and other such services are organised, and then only with your knowledge and permission.

Debit and credit card information

If you use your credit or debit card to purchase from us we will ensure that this is carried out securely and in accordance with the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard. We will never store any of your credit or debit card information.

Maintaining your personal information

If you no longer wish for us to store your personal information you can opt out at any time by unsubscribing from our mailing list by clicking on the link on one of our mail outs or contacting us in writing at the email address or address below.

Security

We will always put in place appropriate safeguards to keep your personal information as secure as possible whilst we hold it.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may change our privacy policy from time to time due to changes in the law or otherwise that affect personal data protection.
